Clinical Teaching In Nursing Homes

Integrating Clinical Experiences In To Your Curriculum

This web-based resource offers faculty a “real life” practical guide to create and implement successful clinical learning experiences for students in a nursing home setting.

Highlights:

- Step by step process in Identifying and selecting nursing homes providing quality care for student learning
- Provides faculty with important information about nursing homes to guide student learning in this rich learning environment
- Creative and innovative teaching strategies emphasizing the role of the RN in the nursing home
- Keys to building and sustaining partnerships between school of nursing faculty and nursing home staff to facilitate positive learning experiences for students

This workshop was funded by a 3-year grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) D62HP15053, Health Services Administration (HRSA) D62H-15053